

Charlotte Du

Development & Asset Manager
Hudson Capital Properties

Charlotte Du is a Development & Asset Manager at Hudson Capital Properties in Raleigh, NC. Headquartered in NYC, Hudson is a real estate investment firm that currently owns 22 multifamily properties in targeted markets, mostly in the Southeastern US. The company also has another 700+ multifamily units under development.

Charlotte moved to North Carolina from Wisconsin where she earned an MBA degree with a specialization in Real Estate at the University of Wisconsin-Madison. During her MBA program, she and her team managed part of the University endowment fund, investing $1.5 million in US REITs. She also interned for Prologis as an MBA summer associate and worked closely with the leasing, property management and capital deployment teams on their industrial assets.

Prior to joining the MBA program, Charlotte served as Corporate Revenue Management & Sales Analyst for Marcus Hotels & Resorts, a hotel management company headquartered in Milwaukee, WI.

Charlotte received bachelor's degrees from both Sun Yat-Sen University in China and Oklahoma State University with a major in Hospitality & Tourism Management and a minor in Finance.