

Mason Ellerbe

Vice President
Abacus Capital

Mason Ellerbe is a Charlotte native and Vice President of Abacus Capital, a tactical multi-faceted real estate investment management firm focused on the acquisition and development of income producing commercial real estate in growth markets across the southeastern United States. Mason's responsibilities with Abacus include underwriting, sourcing, financing, asset management and execution of existing assets as well as new opportunities.

Prior to joining Abacus Capital, Mason worked for Lennar Multifamily Communities on the Carolinas development team focused on large-scale urban multi-family and mixed-use communities throughout the Carolinas, especially in the Charlotte, Raleigh-Durham, and Charleston markets. Mason began his real estate career in the Washington, DC area with Lincoln Property Company's multi-family residential division focused on the development and acquisition of rental apartments throughout the Mid-Atlantic region.

Mason received a B.A. in Finance from Wofford College and earned an MBA from UNC's Kenan-Flagler Business School. Mason is an active member of ULI and serves as a youth basketball coach at the Dowd YMCA in Charlotte.